

Johann (Hans) Leiter was born in Vienna July 7, 1933. He passed away December 25, 2011 in Portland, Oregon. With his twin sister, Gretel, he started his skating career at the famous Vienna Skating Club. After receiving his Dental Technician Diploma, he realized skating comedy was his calling. Hans excelled and became a headliner in many ice shows including The Vienna Ice Revue, Holiday On Ice, Ice Follies and Ice Capades.

He married Cathy Cushner and had 2 sons Johann (Michael) and Christopher. The family eventually settled in Lake Tahoe which reminded Hans of his homeland.

A Celebration of Hans' Life took place in Las Vegas with many of his friends and family in attendance including Michael (Allysha), beloved grand-daughter Elloise and Christopher (Collette).

Since his death, Hans would have been a grandfather to Everett (Michael & Allysha) and twins Noah & Silas (Christopher & Collette).

Hans leaves behind a lifetime of memories, laughter, and great stories to cherish.
